

PRESS RELEASE

The Country Living Guide to Rural England - The Heart of England is available from December 2009 and can be found in all major bookstores, independent bookshops, internet retailers and direct from Travel Publishing. RRP £10.99.

The book is part of a popular series of 10 rural travel guides, published in conjunction with Country Living Magazine.

You can read and learn from this book many things that you couldn't elsewhere, eyebrow-raising stories such as the Mordiford Dragon, p. 28 and the history surrounding Fotheringhay Castle, p. 424.

Enjoy one of the most extraordinary sights in the country, Yew Tree Avenue, p. 392. Find a cosy nook for a well-earned drink in The Fleece Inn, a quintessential English pub with an orchard garden and a thatched barn, p.62. Learn about the interesting relationship between Hereford and cider, p. 22.

Highlights

- Vivid descriptions and amusing anecdotes of places of interest, villages & towns.
- Recommended places and sites to visit
- A detailed insight into the surrounding area's history and culture
- A selection of walks from walkingworld.com

The Writer - Peter Long

Peter is an Oxford Classics graduate who dabbled briefly in financial planning before deciding that words are more appealing than numbers. He subsequently spent many years as an inspector and writer with Egon Ronay's Hotels & Restaurants Guides before joining the Travel Publishing editorial team in 1998.

Notes to Editors:

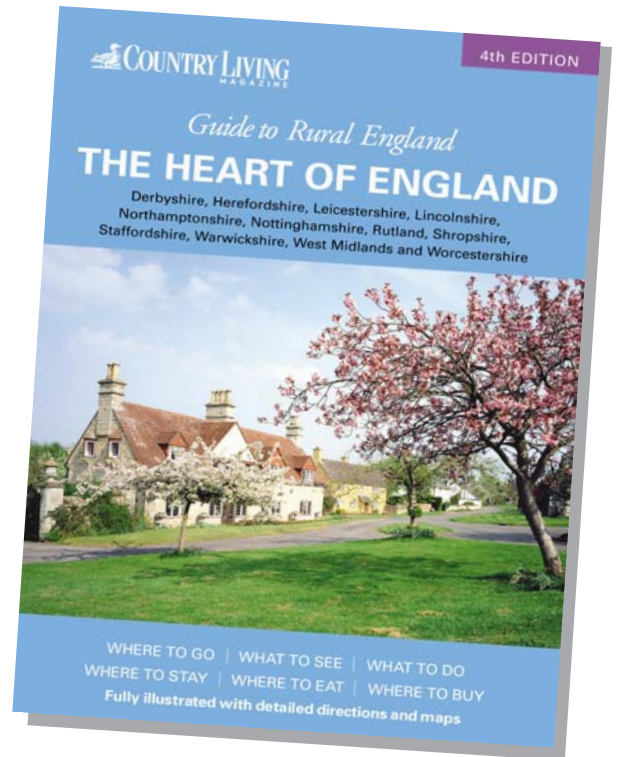

- A number of copies of the book are available to provide material for articles and reviews and/or for giveaways or competition prizes.
- The writer is available for interview.
- Travel publishing can also make available editorial content for use with particular articles or as input to a series of features. This has already proved to be very popular with a number of leading newspapers.
- Images available upon request.
