COMPETITION TIME

Win a new Peak
District guide book

THIS week, you could win a copy of The Hidden Places of the Peak District and Derbyshire book.

Not the Christmas and New Year festivities are out of the way, spring and summer will soon be upon us and now is the time to plan those days out or short breaks.

The sixth edition of The Hidden Places of the Peak District and Derbyshire is a great source of inspiration for pilgrims to visit, stay, eat and drink.

The book contains a wealth of interesting information on the history, the countryside and towns and villages, and the more established visitor attractions, but it also focuses on promoting the less well-known places of interest.

This is every traveller's must-have companion and it allows you to begin your journey to discovering the hidden gems on your doorstep.

It gives readers the inside scoop on the Peak District and Derbyshire's best kept secrets and even regular visitors to the area will find something new in this guide.

Not only that, but the guide looks fantastic. Travel Publishing recently undertook a major overhaul of the Hidden Places series cover design and page layouts.

And the company director Peter Robinson said this about the new book: "These changes are exciting and we think they significantly improve the usefulness, accessibility and appeal of the Hidden Places series.

"Editorially, the Hidden Places will continue Travel Publishing's commitment to exploring the more interesting, unusual or unique places of interest in Britain & Ireland."
